

COPAS is a professional member association for the oil and gas industry's most knowledgeable and influential accounting professionals, offering programs and education that result in innovative business and accounting solutions. COPAS publications are recognized worldwide as the authority for oil and gas accounting standards for US operations. COPAS members outpace the field with their knowledge, skill and connections